

TACK'S GOSSIP AND BOWLING NEWS

Billie Cordes of the Grand Central Bowling Academy, Brooklyn, was re-elected to the Presidency of the Eastern Alley Owners' Association at the annual meeting and election of officers of that body held at the association's headquarters, Bert Bergman of the Berneaux Bros' alleys was elected to the Vice Presidency; Maurice C. Wyman of the Columbia alleys was re-elected Secretary; Billy Amann of the New York alleys was chosen Treasurer, while "Uncle Joe" Thum was made the fifth member of the Executive Committee.

The matter of holding the 1921 Eastern Individual Championship tournament was discussed at great length and the following alley owners applied for charters for the purpose of having a representative in the contest: Dunbar, Heins, Senatore, Cohen, Schumacher, Thum, Kahr, Meier, Bergman, Amann, Cordes, Riddell, Spinnell, Stein and Miller.

A committee consisting of Louis Stein, Ruddle Schumacher and Alex. Dunbar was appointed to draw up a schedule that will be satisfactory to all of the charter holders.

P. C. Tackney, editor of the New York Bowlers' Journal, was appointed tournament secretary. The contest is to start April 2.

The Greater New York Women's Bowling Association will hold its annual meeting and election of officers at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, Wednesday evening, Jan. 12, at 7:30 P. M. Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, president of the association, desires every woman interested in the bowling game to attend. At this meeting a date will be set for the 1921 championship, and the ladies will learn much concerning the Women's National Bowling Association tournament which is to be held in Cleveland, O., next spring.

Profr. Biederbeck surprised both Ruddle Schumacher and Henry Senatore at the third and final series of a three-rolled match, rolled at Schumacher's Broadway alleys, Brooklyn, last night. He was short 73 pins of the required number to win the contest, however, which was total pins to score. Henry Senatore was the winner of the roll for which the bowlers were rolling with a total of 1,413 for the three rolls against 1,414 for Biederbeck and 1,415 for Schumacher. Mr. Schumacher, by the way, will be here at a dinner party for Mr. Biederbeck, Mr. Senatore and their friends in the near future. One of the conditions of the match was that the bowler who rolled the lowest score would be the winner.

On Jan. 23 the Wild Cat Bowling Club is to have its first bowling contest at Tack's alleys, No. 72 Eighth Avenue. The Wild Cats will be represented as one of the latest additions to the United Bowling Clubs, who are making such a very good showing this season in the club rooms.

The prize contest will be for ladies and gentlemen.

Mr. Miller won the five-roll challenge contest rolled at the University Bowling Academy with a total of 1,275 pins for seven games. The winner was followed in turn by the Moore, Senatore, Cohen, Schumacher, Thum, Kahr, Meier, Bergman, Amann, Cordes, Riddell, Spinnell, Stein and Miller.
